Clara Penton

Clara Penton's job is to help other people feel good about themselves and she gets a good feeling doing that. As a job coach and direct care worker at Millcreek in Escatawpa, Penton gives disabled adults a reason to be excited each day.

After seeing the program in action, Penton was touched and wanted to be a part of the program. Every day she picks up a pair of clients with developmental disabilities and takes them to work at Ocean Springs City Hall. The 46-year resident of Moss Point said she loves being with her family when she is not working. Penton is one of eight children, she is married and has seven children of her own, 14 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
